9. NATIONAL COMMISSION FOR SCHEDULED TRIBE (NCST)

National Commission for Scheduled Tribes is a Constitutional body, established by amending Article-338 and inserting a new Article-338(A) in the Constitution through 89th Constitutional Amendment Act – 2003.

By this amendment, the erstwhile National Commission for Scheduled Castes and Scheduled Tribes was replaced by two separate commissions, on 19th of Feb. 2004, namely –

- 1) National Commission for Scheduled Castes, (NCSC) and
- 2) National Commission for Scheduled Tribes (NCST)

❑ History

As per the Census of 1931, Scheduled Tribes are termed as “Backward Tribes”, living in the geographically isolated and partially isolated areas.

The Government of India Act-1935 called for the first time for representatives of ‘backward tribes’ in provincial assemblies.

The constitution does not define the Criteria for recognition of Scheduled Tribes and hence the definition contained in census of 1931 was used in initial years after independence. However, Article-366(25) of the constitution only provides process to define Scheduled Tribes.

❑ Prominent Committees/Commissions.

1) Lokur Committee (1965)

It was setup to look into Criteria for defining Scheduled Tribes.

The committee recommended 5 essential Characteristics for their identification –

- 1) Primitive traits.
- 2) Geographical Isolation.
- 3) Distinct Culture

2) Bhuria Commission (2002-04)

- 4) Shyness of Contact with community at large.
- 5) Backwardness.

It focused on a wide range of issues from the 5th Scheduled to tribal land and forests, health and education, the working of Panchyats and the Status of tribal women.

3) Virginius Xaxa (2013)

It was a high level committee (HLC) constituted in 2013 to study 5 Critical issues related to tribal communities –

- 1) Livelihood and Employment,
- 2) Education
- 3) Health
- 4) Involuntary displacement and migration
- 5) Legal and Constitutional Matters

Basics about NCST

NCST was established on 19th of Feb. 2004.

❑ Extra Shots

➤ About Scheduled Tribes

Constitutional Definition : Article 366(25) of the Constitution of India refers to the Scheduled Tribes, are those communities who are Scheduled in accordance with Article 342. This Article says that “only those communities who have been declared as such by the President of India will be considered to be Scheduled Tribes”.

Social Definition : Tribe is that class of Human Society which depicts primitive time in the present modern world and due to their primitive traits, Geographical Isolation and Backwardness. They called as ‘Adivasi’.

Thakkar Bapa : Amritlal Vitthal Das Thakkar (1869-1951, Gujarat), popularly known as Thakkar Bapa was the first who coined the term ‘Adivasi’, to refer the tribal people. He was a social worker and did a lot in the field of tribal development programme. Hence, he is also considered as ‘Father of Tribal Development Programme’.

Dr. G.S. Ghuriye (1893-1983, Maharashtra) : He proposed a word ‘Scheduled Tribe’ for Tribal People and it acknowledged by our constitution under Article-342.

➤ Particularly Vulnerable Tribal Groups (PVTGs)

PVTGs are more vulnerable among the tribal groups. Due to this factor, more developed and assertive tribal groups take a major chunk of the tribal development funds because of which PVTGs need more funds directed for their development. In 1973, the Dhebar Commission created Primitive Tribal Groups (PTGs) as a separate category, who are less developed among the tribal groups. In 2006, the Government of India renamed the PTGs as PVTGs.

In this context, in 1975, the Government of India initiated to identify the most vulnerable tribal groups as a separate category called PVTGs and declared 52 such groups, while in 1993 an additional 23 groups were added to the category, making it a total of 75 PVTGs out of 705 Scheduled Tribes.

PVTGs have some basic characteristics - they are mostly homogenous, with a small population, relatively physically isolated, absence of written language, relatively simple technology and a slower rate of change etc.

Among the 75 listed PVTG’s the highest number are found in Odisha.

10. NATIONAL COMMISSION FOR BACKWARD CLASSES (NCBC)

□ Basics

Establishment – 14th of Aug 1993 by the National Commission for Backward Classes Act, 1993.

Constitutional Status – By 102nd Constitutional Amendment Act, 2018. [Under Article – 338(B)].

Headquarter – New Delhi.

First Chairperson – R.N. Prasad.

Current Incumbent – Bhagwan Lal Sahni

Nodal Ministry – Ministry of Social Justice and Welfare.

- First time, Two Backward Class Commissions were appointed in 1950s and 1970s under Kaka Kalelkar and B.P. Mandal respectively.
- In Indra Sawhney case of 1992, Supreme Court had directed the government to create a permanent body to entertain, examine and recommend the inclusion and exclusion of various Backward Classes for the purpose of benefits and protection.
- In pursuant to these directions parliament passed National Commission for Backward Classes Act in 1993 and constituted the NCBC.

National Commission for Backward Classes (NCBC) established on 14th August 1993 is a constitutional body under the Ministry of Social Justice and Empowerment. It was formed under the National Commission for Backward Classes Act, 1993. This Commission was formed as an initiative for investigating the conditions and difficulties of the socially and educationally backward classes and thus making appropriate recommendations.

□ Some of the highlights of NCBC are mentioned in the table below :

The National Commission for Backward Classes (NCBC) was an outcome of the Indra Sawhney case (Mandal Commission) of 1992. In the final verdict of the Mandal Commission, the Supreme Court of India had addressed the formation of NCBC as a statutory body. Headquartered in Delhi, the National Commission for Backward Classes was established on August 14, 1993

102nd Constitution Amendment Act, 2018 provides constitutional status to the National Commission for Backward Classes (NCBC).

It has the authority to examine complaints and welfare measures regarding socially and educationally backward classes.

Previously NCBC was a statutory body under the Ministry of Social Justice and Empowerment.

❑ Structure of NCBC

The Commission consists of five members including a Chairperson, Vice-Chairperson and three other Members appointed by the President by warrant under his hand and seal.

The conditions of service and tenure of office of the Chairperson, Vice-Chairperson and other Members is determined by President.

❑ Constitutional Provisions

Article 340 deals with the need to, inter alia, identify those "socially and educationally backward classes", understand the conditions of their backwardness, and make recommendations to remove the difficulties they face.

102nd Constitution Amendment Act inserted new Articles 338 B and 342 A. The amendment also brings about changes in Article 366.

Article 338B provides authority to NCBC to examine complaints and welfare measures regarding socially and educationally backward classes.

Article 342A empowers President to specify socially and educationally backward classes in various states and union territories. He can do this in consultation with Governor of concerned State. However, law enacted by Parliament will be required if list of backward classes is to be amended.

❑ Powers and Functions

The commission investigates and monitors all matters relating to the safeguards provided for the socially and educationally backward classes under the Constitution or under any other law to evaluate the working of such safeguards. It participates and advises on the socio-economic development of the socially and educationally backward classes and to evaluate the progress of their development under the Union and any State.

It presents to the President, annually and at such other times as the Commission may deem fit, reports upon the working of those safeguards. The President laid such reports before each House of Parliament.

Where any such report or any part thereof, relates to any matter with which any State Government is concerned, a copy of such report shall be forwarded to the State Government.

NCBC has to discharge such other functions in relation to the protection, welfare and development and advancement of the socially and educationally backward classes as the President may, subject to the provisions of any law made by Parliament, by rule specify.

MADHYA PRADESH STATE BACKWARD CLASSES COMMISSION

It was constituted by the Madhya Pradesh government on 13th March 1993 in compliance with the direction given by the Supreme Court in the year 1990 in the case of Union of India Vs Indira Sahni and others.

❑ Constitution of the Commission

State Backward Classes Commission will be constituted by the State Government, a body known as the Madhya Pradesh State Commission for Backward Classes, which will consist of the following :

Three unofficial members who have special knowledge in matters – relating to backward classes, one of whom will be the Chairperson who will be appointed by the State Government.

But at least one member of the three Members will be from the backward classes. Every member of the Commission shall hold office for a period of 3 years from the date on which he takes office.

The Chairman or member can resign his office by letter addressed to the State Government at any time.

The State Government may be able to remove any person from his post on the basis of inefficiency and other grounds.

1st Chairperson – Vasant Rao Uike.

❑ Functions

To add or remove castes to the list of backward classes of the State. Monitoring of schemes.

Recommending the extent of creamy layer.

Advising on reservation in public services and educational institutions. Acting as a representative for the protection of backward classes.

❑ 105th Constitution Amendment

The Amendment is designed to clarify that the states can maintain the “state list” of OBCs as was the system before the Supreme Court judgment.

- The “state list” will be completely taken out of the ambit of the President and will be notified by the state assembly.

❑ Constitutional provisions relating to reservation

- As per the Indian Constitution, Articles 15 (4), 15 (5), and 16 (4) confer power on the governments to declare and identify the list of socially and educationally backward classes.
- As a practice, separate OBC lists are drawn up by the Central Government and each State concerned.

❑ 102nd Constitutional Amendment:

- The Amendment established a National Commission for Backward Classes by adding Article 338B to the Constitution.
- The Amendment also added Article 342A, under which the President shall notify a list of Socially and Economically Backward Classes (SEBC) in relation to each State and Union Territory, in consultation with Governors of the respective States. Once this ‘Central List’ is notified, only Parliament could make inclusions or exclusions in the list by law.

11. CENTRAL INFORMATION COMMISSION (CIC)

The Central Information Commission (CIC) is an statutory body in India to act upon complaints received from individuals who have been unable to submit requests of information to a Central or State Public Information Officer due to either the officer not having been appointed, or the respective officer refused to entertain the application under the Right to Information Act, 2005 (Amended in 2019). The Central Information Commission is not a constitutional body.

The CIC was constituted with effect from 12th October 2005 under the RTI Act 2005. Its jurisdiction extends to all central public authorities.

❑ Background

- RTI movement was started by Majdoor Kisan Shakti Sangathan in Rajasthan in early 1990's to fight against corruption.
- The RTI Act, 2005 replaced Freedom of Information Act. That didn't provide for Right to information to citizens. It didn't provide for an independent body. Only public officials had the freedom to access the information.
- Supreme Court held that Right to information is included in Article 19 (1) (a) which provides for Right to freedom of speech and expression as one can express his views only if he is well informed.
- In Maneka Gandhi vs. Union of India case it was held that Article 21 includes Right to choice and dignity. Hence every person shall have the right to know as information leads to choices.
- A well informed citizen further strengthens the roots of democracy.

❑ Central Information Commission Composition

➤ Members in CIC – The CIC is headed by the Chief Information Commissioner and not more than ten Information Commissioners are there for the assistance of CIC. The Chief Information Commissioner holds office for five years.

➤ Appointment of the commissioner in CIC – The commissioners are appointed by the President on the recommendation of a committee consisting of the Prime Minister as Chairperson, the Leader of Opposition in the Lok Sabha, and a Union Cabinet Minister nominated by the Prime Minister.

➤ Tenure of Office – The Chief Information Commissioner and an Information Commissioner shall hold office for such term as prescribed by the Central Government. They are not eligible for reappointment.

❑ Genrel procedure of RTI Act

Any person who, does not receive a decision within the time specified, or is aggrieved by a decision of the Central Public Information Officer or State Public Information Officer, as the case may be, may within thirty days from the expiry of such period or from the receipt of such a decision prefer an appeal to such officer who is senior in rank to the Central Public Information Officer or State Public Information Officer as the case may be, in each public authority:

A second appeal against the decision *shall lie within ninety days from the date on which the decision should have been made or was actually received, with the Central Information Commission or the State Information Commission:

- The decision of the Central Information Commission or State Information Commission, as the case may be, shall be binding.

- Bar of jurisdiction of courts.

(However a writ Petition U/Art. 226 can be filed in High Court.)

❑ Role of the Central Information Commission

1. Order enquiry into any matter on reasonable grounds only (suo-moto power).
2. Secure compliance of its decisions from any public authority.
3. Receive and inquire into a complaint from any person:

Who has not received any response to his request for information within a specified time.

Who deems the information given to him/her incomplete, false or misleading, and any other matter related to securing the information

Who has been unable to submit a request for information due to the non-appointment of an officer.

Who considers the fees so charged unreasonable Who was refused the information requested.

12. CENTRAL VIGILANCE COMMISSION (CVC)

Central Vigilance Commission is the apex vigilance institution, free of control from any executive authority, monitoring all vigilance activity under the Central Government and advising various authorities in Central Government organizations in planning, executing, reviewing and reforming their vigilance work.

Vigilance means to ensure clean and prompt administrative action towards achieving efficiency and effectiveness of the employees in particular and the organization in general, as lack of Vigilance leads to waste, losses and economic decline.

History : The CVC was set up by the Government on Feb. 11, 1964 on the recommendations of the Committee on Prevention of Corruption, headed by Shri K. Santhanam.

In 2003, the Parliament enacted CVC Act conferring statutory status on the CVC.

The CVC is not controlled by any Ministry/Department. It is an independent body which is only responsible to the Parliament.

❑ Functions

- The CVC receives complaints on corruption or misuse of office and to recommend appropriate action. Following institutions, bodies, or a person can approach to CVC : Central Government, Lokpal or Whistle blowers
 - ❑ A whistleblower is a person, who could be an employee of a company, or a government agency, or an outsider (like media, higher government officials, or police) disclosing information to the public or some higher authority about any wrongdoing, which could be in the form of fraud, corruption, etc.
- It is not an investigating agency. The CVC either gets the investigation done through the CBI or through chief vigilance officers (CVO) in government offices.
- It is empowered to inquire into offences alleged to have been committed under the Prevention of Corruption Act, 1988 by certain categories of public servants.
- Its annual report gives the details of the work done by the commission and points to systemic failures which lead to corruption in government departments.

Improvements and preventive measures are also suggested in report.

❑ History

➤ The Special Police Establishment (SPE), which was set up in 1941 by the Government of India. The functions of the SPE then were to investigate cases of bribery and corruption in transactions with the War & Supply Department of India during World War II.

Even after the end of the War, the need for a Central Government agency to investigate cases of bribery and corruption by Central Government employees was felt.

The Delhi Special Police Establishment Act was therefore brought into force in 1946.

➤ After promulgation of the Act, superintendence of SPE was transferred to the Home Department and its functions were enlarged to cover all departments of the Government of India.

The jurisdiction of SPE was extended to all the Union territories and the Act provided for its extension to States with the consent of the State Government.

➤ By 1963, the SPE was authorised to investigate offences under 91 different sections of Indian Penal Code (IPC) and 16 other Central Acts besides offences under the Prevention of Corruption Act 1947.

➤ On the recommendations of the Santhanam Committee on Prevention of Corruption, Central Bureau of Investigation (CBI) was established by a resolution of the Ministry of Home Affairs on April 1, 1963.

Later, it was transferred to the Ministry of Personnel and now it enjoys the status of an attached office.

➤ In 1964, the Central Vigilance Commission (CVC) was set up by the Government on the recommendations of Santhanam Committee, to advise and guide Central Government agencies in the field of vigilance.

➤ The Supreme Court in the judgment of Vineet Narain & Others Vs Union of India (1997), gave directions regarding the superior role of CVC.

In this case the role of the Central Bureau of Investigation was criticised and the court directed that CVC should be given a supervisory role over CBI.

➤ The Government promulgated an Ordinance in 1998, conferring statutory status to the CVC and the powers to exercise superintendence over functioning of the Delhi Special Police Establishment (CBI), and also to review the progress of the investigations pertaining to:

Alleged offences under the Prevention of Corruption Act, 1988 conducted by them.

➤ The Commission was given statutory status by the enactment of “The Central Vigilance Commission Act, 2003”.

After enactment of CVC Act, 2003, the Commission became a multi-member body consisting of a Central Vigilance Commissioner (Chairperson) and not more than two Vigilance Commissioners (Members), to be appointed by the President.

➤ The Supreme Court in a Writ Petition filed after the murder of Shri Satyendra Dubey in 2003, a whistle-blower, directed that a machinery be put in place for acting on complaints from whistle-blowers till a law is enacted.

In pursuance of that direction, the Government of India notified the Public Interest Disclosure and Protection of Informers Resolution (PIDPI), 2004 :

□ This Resolution is popularly known as “Whistle Blowers” Resolution and it designated the Central Vigilance Commission as the agency to receive and act on complaints or disclosure on any allegation of corruption or misuse of office from whistle blowers. □

□ The Commission has been entrusted with the responsibility of keeping the identity of the complainant secret while lodging a complaint under PIDPI Resolution, in order to provide protection to whistle blowers from victimisation. □

The Public Interest Disclosure and Protection to Person Making the Disclosures (PIDPPMD) Bill 2010 renamed as “The Whistle Blowers’ Protection Bill, 2011” was enacted by the Central Government in Parliament as “The Whistle Blowers’ Protection Act, 2014”.

➤ Through subsequent ordinances and legislations the Government has added to the functions and powers of the Commission.

➤ In 2013, the Parliament enacted the Lokpal and Lokayuktas Act, 2013.

This act has amended CVC Act, 2003 whereby the Commission has been empowered to conduct preliminary inquiry and further investigation into complaints referred by the Lokpal.

➤ On the issue of overlap of jurisdiction between the CVC Act and the Lokpal and Lokayuktas Act, the Commission has communicated its suggestions to the Department Related Parliamentary Standing Committee on Personnel, Public Grievances, Law and Justice during its examination of the Lokpal and Lokayuktas and Other Related Law (Amendment) Bill, 2014.

❑ Governance

The Central Vigilance Commission has its own Secretariat, Chief Technical Examiners' Wing (CTE) and a wing of Commissioners for Departmental Inquiries (CDI). For investigation work, CVC has to depend on two external sources CBI and Chief Vigilance Officers (CVO).

➤ The Central Vigilance Commission

Multi-member Commission consists of a Central Vigilance Commissioner (Chairperson) and not more than two Vigilance Commissioners (Member).

The Central Vigilance Commissioner and the Vigilance Commissioners are appointed by the President on the recommendations of a Committee consisting of the Prime Minister (Chairperson), the Minister of Home Affairs (Member) and the Leader of the Opposition in the House of the People (Member).

The term of office of the Central Vigilance Commissioner and the Vigilance Commissioners is four years from the date on which they enter their office or till they attain the age of 65 years, whichever is earlier.

❑ Appointment

President shall appoint the Central Vigilance Commissioner and Vigilance Commissioner by an order letter including his signature and seal.

But they will be appointed on the basis of the recommendation of a committee consisting of the following :

- a) Prime Minister – Chairman
- b) Home Minister – Member
- c) Leader of opposition in Lok Sabha – Member.

In the Lok Sabha, when no leader is recognized as the leader of the opposition, the leader of the single largest group of opposition in the government in the Lok Sabha will be considered as the leader of the opposition.

No vacancy in the appointments committee shall invalidate the appointments.

❑ Terms of Service

The Central Vigilance Commissioner will not be eligible for re-appointment in the Commission.

If the Vigilance Commissioner is appointed as the Central Vigilance Commissioner, his total service should not be more than 4 years altogether as vigilance commissioner and Central Vigilance Commissioner.

The Central Vigilance Commissioner or a Vigilance Commissioner may resign his office through a self-signed letter addressed to the President.

❑ Removal

The central vigilance Commissioner or any other Commissioner shall be removed from his post on the basis of misconduct or inability by the President's order only if the Supreme Court, after examining gives direction to do so.

The President may, on receipt of the Supreme Court's report on such direction, shall suspend him from office till the order is passed by the President and, if deemed necessary, shall also debar him from entering the office during the investigation.

The President may also remove the central vigilance Commissioner or other vigilance Commissioners from their post on the following grounds :

- a) If the person has been adjudged an insolvent.
- b) Convicted for a crime that is a moral degradation in the president's opinion.
- c) Involves in salaried employment during the term of their office.
- d) If he is not able to remain in office due to mental or physical disability (in the opinion of the President).

If the person has earned financial and other interests which are likely to adversely affect his acts as vigilance commissioners.

The Chairman or judicial members shall not be removed from the post except for any order made by the Central Government after such an enquiry by a Judge of the Supreme Court, out of which the Chairman or judicial member has been informed of the allegations against him and given a reasonable opportunity to keep his side. The Central Government shall suspend such Chairman or judicial member from the post until his case is being investigated in the court.

The central government can regulate the investigation process by rule.

The expert member may be removed from his post by the order of the Central Government on specified grounds and in accordance with the procedure notified by the Central Government.

But the expert Member will be removed from office only when he has been given an opportunity to be heard in that matter.

❑ Powers & Jurisdiction

The Tribunal has jurisdiction over all civil cases involving substantial question relating to environment (including enforcement of any legal right relating to environment).

Being a statutory adjudicatory body like Courts, apart from original jurisdiction side on filing of an application, NGT also has appellate jurisdiction to hear appeal as a Court (Tribunal).

The Tribunal is not bound by the procedure laid down under the Code of Civil Procedure 1908, but shall be guided by principles of 'natural justice'.

While passing any order/decision/ award, it shall apply the principles of sustainable development, the precautionary principle and the polluter pays principle.

NGT by an order, can provide

- relief and compensation to the victims of pollution and other environmental damage (including accident occurring while handling any hazardous substance),
- for restitution of property damaged, and
- for restitution of the environment for such area or areas, as the Tribunal may think fit. An order/decision/award of Tribunal is executable as a decree of a civil court.

The NGT Act also provides a procedure for a penalty for non compliance :

- Imprisonment for a term which may extend to three years,
- Fine which may extend to ten crore rupees, and
- Both fine and imprisonment.

An appeal against order/decision/ award of the NGT lies to the Supreme Court, generally within ninety days from the date of communication.

The NGT deals with civil cases under the seven laws related to the environment, these include :

- The Water (Prevention and Control of Pollution) Act, 1974,
- The Water (Prevention and Control of Pollution) Cess Act, 1977,
- The Forest (Conservation) Act, 1980,
- The Air (Prevention and Control of Pollution) Act, 1981,
- The Environment (Protection) Act, 1986,
- The Public Liability Insurance Act, 1991 and
- The Biological Diversity Act, 2002.

Any violation pertaining to these laws or any decision taken by the Government under these laws can be challenged before the NGT.
